

Mr. Clarence Williams

June 27, 1932 - February 21, 2010

Mr. Clarence Williams was born to the late Lee Williams and Bertha Blackman on June 27, 1932 in Wilson, North Carolina. He was in the United States Air Force for 10 years as a Cook. Soon after retirement from the Air Force, he was employed and retired after 20 years from POST (Kraft) where he was a Control Panel Operator. His hobbies included: cooking, home improvement building and taking pictures. He was always a kind-hearted and giving person who always went out of his way to keep family and friends smiling. He was a family-oriented person and enjoyed spending time with family and friends, especially his grandchildren. Daddy-O will be truly missed by family and friends. Daddy-O leaves to cherish his memories: wife Patricia A. Williams, of Battle Creek, MI; his sons Lawrence E. Pratt, Kalamazoo, MI, Van B. Pratt, Battle Creek, MI, Steven D. Pratt, Kalamazoo, MI, his daughters, Pamela A. Pratt, Randolph MA, Kimberly Ismailoglu-Pratt, Ft. Lauderdale, FL, Barbara M. Allen, Kalamazoo, MI, Anika L. Eanes, Battle Creek, MI, step-daughter DeAndra M. Sanders, Battle Creek, MI; 20 grandchildren, Shannon Frost, Danielle Jones, Megan Pratt, Shamon Pratt, Ahmet, Ali and Ayse Ismailoglu, Kenneth Pratt, Cameron Allen, Stacey, Jeffrey, Bobbie and Joseph Pratt, Amanda Marshall, Taylor Lowe, Van Pratt Jr., Teone Phelps, Alphonso, Clieesha and Clyde Sanders; and 18 great-grandchildren and many family and friends.
