

Mr. David Lewis Revore

November 10, 2010

David Lewis Revore ("Dave") was born in October, 1942, in Kalamazoo, the son of Curtis and Marguerite (Leetz) Revore, and joined his Lord Jesus Christ, on November 10, 2010. He was an area resident of Paw Paw and Kalamazoo most of his life. Dave served in the United States Navy and received his honorable discharge on September 6, 1963. Dave was a master journeyman and electrician at the Gibson Guitar Company for 23 years until Gibson's final closing in Kalamazoo. He was Gibson's last Kalamazoo employee. Dave continued his career at the former Gibson Guitar location as the Building Manager for many more years and worked at the Heritage Guitar Company until his health declined. Fondest memories include time spent in Nashville, Tennessee visiting the Gibson plant and the Grand Ole Opry, summer trips to Mackinac Island, Friday pool shooting, Saturday stockcar races and Sunday lunch in South Haven. In later years Dave enjoyed his time spent with grandson Jack at county fairs, farm events and Tiger baseball. Dave was a unique character who will be dearly missed. On October 27, 1962, Dave was united in marriage to Janice Lawson. Although their marriage ended, Dave and Janice remained close friends. Preceding him in death were his parents. Dave is survived by his children: Constance (Trish) Revore, David M. (Mandy) Revore and Daniel J. (Anne) Revore; grandson, John "Jack" Revore; granddaughters, Olivia Revore and Ava Revore; his brother William (Carol) Revore and nieces, nephew, and grand nieces and nephews.
