“ Once again our hearts have been softened by the home going of another saint, namely our Uncle Eddy. Somehow it seems that whatever I did with regards to physical work never measured up to Uncle Eddy. An industrious man with a work ethic that was surpassed by none.
May Jesus' promised resurrection day cause all of us to purify ourselves even as He is pure as we await His eminent return.##imported-begin##Gentry & Rosalyn Phillips##imported-end##

“ I was sad to hear of your families loss. Mr. Moorehead was a wonderful man who was kind to everyone and never had a cruel thing to say. His soft spoken voice and his smile will be greatly missed by those who had the privilage of knowing such a man of God.
Our family wishes to extend our heart felt sympathy during this time. May the peace of God abound in each and every one of you.

“ To the Mooreheads, Thoughts from family are with you, as you go through this difficult time, in the loss of Uncle Eddie. May the God of comfort surround you with his love and presence. Uncle Eddie had the ministry of helps, always helping others, fixing and checking out our automobiles, hooking up stoves, hauling and moving furniture or just giving suggestions to name a few. He was kind and a joy to be around. Take heart....he's at home with God and the love of his life, Auntie. The Lord is your Shepherd. Ps 23##imported-begin##Robert & Anita Wilkerson##imported-end##
