

Mr. Herman A. Stewart, Jr.

October 27, 1919 - May 15, 2010

Mr. Herman A. Stewart Jr. passed away Saturday, May 15, 2010 in Kalamazoo, MI. Mr. Stewart was born October 27, 1919 in Battle Creek, MI, the son of Herman A. Stewart, Sr. and Mayme Lee (Whitby) Stewart. At the age of 22 years, he enlisted into the Army, where he served as a Corporal, in Company D, 94th Engineer Regiment, until receiving an Honorable Discharge four years later, on March 22, 1945. He was united in marriage on December 21, 1954 to Wilma Stewart. Herman worked for the United States Postal Service for many years, retiring in 1980. He was a devoted member of The Galilee Baptist Church, for many years, and was involved in the Brotherhood ministry. Herman was a very kind and giving person. He always had a smile on his face. He truly loved people and it showed through his generosity--always ready and willing to help others. He often would visit area nursing homes to encourage the residents who lived there. He enjoyed volunteering every year to greet elementary students on their first day of the school. Herman will truly be missed by family, friends, and all of those who loved him. He was preceded in death by his wife, Wilma Stewart and his parents. Herman leaves to cherish his memory: special niece and great-nieces: Onetress Robinson; Jacqueline Robinson, Onetress (Theodore) Thompspon and Bernice Combs all of Kalamazoo, MI; special cousins, Allen (Pat) Houck, Tiffany Houck-Ruiz both of Texas; and Donie Jones of Flint, MI; special friends: DeWayne and Arene Nunnally of Battle Creek, MI; Frank Johnson, Mary Colbert and Paul Best, all of Kalamazoo, MI. Also, a host of friends, nieces and nephews.

“ To the family of Mr. Herman Stewart, you are in my prayers and I'm so sorry for your lost. Mr. Stewart was a very kindhearted man, with a wonderful spirit. He will be truly missed in our congregation at Galilee. He came to my parents house over Thanksgiving this past year and we all had a wonderful time. We truly enjoyed his company. It was evident that Mr. Stewart lived a long and fruitful life. May the Lord continue to comfort you during this time. God Bless.##imported-begin##Beverly McCall##imported-end##

“ May 24, 2010 6: 23 A. M. Mr. Stewart's life was truly a blessing. He lived each day as an example of Christian Love. His quiet presence was profoundly felt in Dillon Hall in each warm greeting and each gentle act of love, whether it be to help you in any way when you were "overloaded" or to express a kindness while wishing you "a blessed day." He truly showed what a humility of Spirit can instill in others. His physical presence will be sorely missed, but his Spirit will continue to be a part of each one of whose life he touched.##imported-begin##America Elizabeth Nelson, M.S., M.D., M.P.H.##imported-end##
