

Mr. John Curtis Hawthorne

November 5, 1943 - August 9, 2009

Mr. John Curtis Hawthorne passed away August 9, 2009, at the age of 65. He was born November 5, 1943, the son of Mildred and Clarence Hawthorne, in Joliet, IL. John worked in security at West Main Mall and the Upjohn Company, where he later retired. He will be remembered for his smile and ability to draw amusing caricatures. He was preceded in death by his wife, Marlene Hawthorne; and his parents, Mildred and Clarence Hawthorne. He is survived by 3 children: Jon Hawthorne of Powell, Wyoming; Hayley Hawthorne and Randy Hawthorne, both of Kalamazoo, MI; and one grandson, Nicholas Hawthorne.

“ I am the eldest son of William and Dorine Hawthorne. William was the son of Robert Hawthorne, one of the brothers of Clarence. By chance I wrote in John's name and city on my computer. I am so sorry to hear of John's passing. My brother and I were partners with John in filling Clarence's gas tank with sand. I have some of the early Hawthorne history, including a picture of Clarence and Mildred.##imported-begin##Robert Hawthorne##imported-end##

“ I grew up with the Hawthorne family and have many great memories. Most recently I am glad I had the chance to reconnect with John while he worked at Harding's on Stadium Drive. He raised 3 wonderful children who I am proud to call my friends.##imported-begin##Alan Smith##imported-end##
