“ I want to say I am sorry, I want to say lets start over, but you were many things to many people. Son, Brother, Father, Uncle and friend. You lived life your way and to the fullest. You were a free sprirt flying where the wind took you.

You came home to rejuvenate and recoup but you always flew off again.

When the family called you were always there. Wether it was your mom, or one of your brothers. You always came through. You did things your way for your own reasons. You never took anyones opinon as your own, you made up your own mind, did your own thinking.

We were not always friends but always you were my Uncle. I did not always like you but I always loved you. I hope you have found the peace that you never seem to find here.

I love you
