

Mr. Reginald ("Reggie") Moran

September 4, 1955 - March 3, 2009

Mr. Reggie Moran was born on September 4, 1955 in Washington, D.C., to the union of John and Helen Moran.

Reggie loved to laugh and have fun. He was a lover of all types of music, especially blues, jazz, rock and R&B. This love of music lead him to playing the drums. He would practice for hours while listening to Jimi Hendrix, Buddy Rich, Howlin' Wolf and others. He played the drums for a couple of bands in the early 70's. Reggie was a quick learner and he could do anything from fixing cars to carpentry work. Whatever he did he gave his all.

He was preceded in death by his parents, John and Helen Moran; grandmothers, Sarah McQueen and Ruth Bond; his favorite uncle, Sidney Stevens; and 3 cousins, James Green, Sandra Walker, and Franklin "Chip" Davis.

Reggie leaves to cherish his memory: 2 sons, Reginald Langston, of Las Vegas, NV, and Brandy Langston, of Kalamazoo, MI; 4 grandchildren, Raniyah, Kei'shawn, Layla, and Mariah; sister, Tamie Moran, of Kalamazoo, MI; brother, Kevin Moran, of Las Vegas, NV; 2 aunts, Shirley Hardy and Peggy Green, of Washington, D.C.; niece and nephews, Kenny, Brittany, Dana, Marcus, and Demetrius.

Reggie shared a very special relationship with the Fields family. They loved and cared for him as a son and a brother. Mrs. Mattie Fields, his mother; 5 sisters, Gloria Clopton, Wendy Fields, Deborah Fields, Melba Parker, and Earline Fields; 3 brothers, and best friend, Travis Fields, Bradley Fields and Christopher Fields. Also, he had a close relationship with his cousins Tiffany and Nicole Fields, and Aaliyah, Iyanna and Kennedy. Reggie has a host of other fond relatives and friends including the Minor's, Green's and Hampton families.
