Amy was a beautiful 7 lb. 8 oz. healthy baby with a set of strong lungs with great endurance. On August 28, 2010, in a beautiful wedding ceremony in Memphis, Tenn., Amy and Archie L. Turner, Jr. were united in marriage. Their ceremony was held at the Woodland Hills Church of Christ and many friends and family were there to witness their union. Amy had a passion for science and math and was driven to achieve excellence in everything she did. She was an accomplished string instrument musician and rose to become one of the best viola players in the Georgia All-State Orchestra while in high school following three years of state competition.

A graduate of Central Gwinnett High School of Gwinnett County, Ga., Amy attended Kutztown University of Kutztown, Pa., and earned a degree in Microbiology and a minor in Chemistry. She went on to earn a Masters Degree in Business from the University of Phoenix in Detroit, Mich. Amy worked as a

Microbiologist and Scientist for King Pharmaceutical in Rochester, Mich. Most recently she served as a Pre-Market Supervisor in the Regulatory Affairs Department at Stryker Medical Instruments. Amy leaves behind to cherish her memory a loving husband, Archie, her mother and father, Al and Wilma Harville of Cordova, Tenn., one sister, Dana Harville of Winston-Salem, NC. “ I have worked with Amy for over 5 years and I know work will not be quite the same without her. I am comforted to know that I will get to see her again someday but it does not erase the pain. My heart and prayers go out to her dear Archie, Dana, her family, friends and relatives. My heart aches for everyone. We definitely had to say goodbye too quickly. But, it is a constant reminder that this life is but a glimpse. That we should not be so focused on earthly things that fade away but to keep our minds on things above. When I think of Amy, I will think of her above and be reminded that this life is but a glimpse. Thank you to all for having a memorial in Kzoo to celebrate and say goodbye to Amy. In Christ's love, Valerie##imported-begin##Valerie Franck##imported-end##

“ Dear Harville and Turner Family, may I offer my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one, Amy. May God grant you the power beyond what is normal to cope with your loss. Please know that our Loving Heavenly Father knows, understands and cares about your pain. (1 Peter 5:7) He has already made provision to restore the life of Amy by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth in peace and happiness in the very near future (Acts 24:15; Luke 23:43; Psalms 37:11, 29). In the weeks and months ahead as you recall precious memories of her, rest assured that she is in God's memory too and that one day very soon, He will awaken her from death's sleep (John 5:28, 29) May God's promises warm your heart and ease your mind. Take courage. Have faith in God's promises for they are sure to come true (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##Lyndah Pardee##imported-end##
