

Mrs. Annie L. Coleman

October 22, 1934 - October 11, 2009

God called one of His angels, Annie Lou Coleman, home to rest on October 11, 2009. Annie Lou was born October 22, 1934 in Big Bee Valley, Mississippi as a Robinson, to the loving woman, Ellen Robinson (Eddins). She was the second oldest of nine siblings, all of whom she nurtured and cherished. As a young woman, Annie Lou relocated to St. Louis, Missouri where she united in Holy Matrimony to Johnnie B. Coleman. This union was blessed with nine children. Annie Lou was a dedicated employee of the Upjohn Company for 27 years, before she retired in 2000. She was a loving and devoted mother and grandmother who would travel around the world and back to be with family. She also enjoyed playing bingo and cooking for her children. Anyone who was blessed to know Annie Lou Coleman knows without a doubt that this kind, loving, free-hearted woman was truly a child of God. Along with many other loved ones, Annie Lou is going home to join her sons, Donald Coleman and Leonard Coleman; her husband, Johnnie B. Coleman; her mother, Ellen Eddins; her sisters, Mary Ann Eddins and Laura Richardson; and her niece, Michele Broomfield. She leaves to cherish her memory: seven beautiful children, Keith (Juanetta) Coleman of St. Louis, Missouri; Melody Coleman and Keyla (Socrates) Blackston of Atlanta, Georgia; Patricia Coleman, Linda Coleman, and Johnnie Coleman of Kalamazoo, Michigan; and Monique (Jay) Coleman-Riddle of White Pigeon, Michigan. She is also survived by three sisters: Gail (Alvin) Pointer, Sheila Madison and Melanie (David) Jackson of St. Louis, Missouri; three brothers, Levi(Cassandra) Eddins; Robert(Lorraine)

Eddins; and Johnnie(Crystal) Eddins of St. Louis, Missouri; 12 grandchildren, 8 great-grandchildren and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and cousins. Annie Lou will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved her.

“ Dearest Melanie and Lynn and the rest of the family. You all had a beautiful mother. I had'nt seen Ann Lou in a while. She was a joy being around when I did see her. At times like these it is only God who can get you through the pain. So lean on him and you will never be alone. My prayers and thought are with you all. Know that Ann lou is safe in GOD'S arm. I'm your cousin Lawanda and I live in Kankakee. May God bless you all.##imported-begin##LAWANDA ROBICHEAUX##imported-end##
