“ I will always treasure my memories and pictures of Aunt Re. I loved when the family would visit us in KS almost every year. I'm like Aunt Re in not hesitating to say what's on our mind - I loved that about her. She would always begin telling you something by saying, "Girllll!"

I'm glad I cam to visit early 2000, I had a great time with her & Uncle George. Sy, Wanda, Ralph, Wayne - you will be in my prayers!

Thanks for the laughs and the visits Aunt Re - you will be missed!##imported-begin##Marcella##imported-end##

“ Words cannot express how I feel about Aunt Re, my look and act alike auntie. I'll miss you on this side, but I know we'll meet again. Circumstances not in my control demanded I stay here and take care of my daughter. I have no doubt though that I'll see my cousins and Uncle soon. God has a way of waking us up to what He put together a long time ago. Let's make the best of it, my precious family!##imported-begin##Dorthene Hinton Turner##imported-end##

“ From childhood, we spent a lot of time together and enjoyed each other at play, work, and at church.....all a wonderful and glorious walk. We learned about the Lord at an early age. We worshipped together at the same church and enjoyed many services at Cherry Hill Baptist Church, England Ark. It was a blessing, our time together. I'll see you on the other side. Until then.....##imported-begin##Flora L. Hinton##imported-end##

“WoW...so many wonderful memories are coming up right now, as I look upon my beautiful aunt, and remember her contagious laughter. I remember as a kid, visiting her home in Junction City, KS, and having her play "Mustang Sally". She would sing along with the chorus, and when Wilson Pickett sang the refrain, she would join in "you gonna have to put your flat feet on the ground". And then she would break out into that laugh that will forever be in my heart.

Aunt Re was straight, no chaser. What you saw was what you got. She didn't put on airs, or have her head in the air. She was just "real people", genuine and caring, with a bit of vulnerability that resided behind the strong armour of her countenance, boisterous voice and unyielding faith.

Her voice came to me earlier today, as I grappled with paying over $1,000 to attend this service. "Don't you be paying no thousand dollars to come here, girl", she said in my head. "That's a lot of money". I realized then that I didn't need to move from where I am to say my goodbyes, and my hellos. That now is really the best time of all, when I can speak to Aunt Re whenever I want to, and where, undoubtedly, she will give me her opinion, whether I've asked for it or not! I love Aunt Re and will miss her dearly, but am excited that she is now in a place where she can be her true, sassy self...forever!##imported-begin##Lutishia Lovely##imported-end##
