

Mrs. Christine Elliott

May 28, 1916 - May 21, 2008

A long, beautiful life ended with the passing of Christine Ollison Elliott on May 21, 2008. Christine Ollison was born on May 28, 1916 in Rosston, Arkansas, one of five daughters and five sons born to Mattie and Eugene Ollison. At an early age, she united with the Oak Grove Baptist Church, Rosston, Arkansas. She met and married Jesse Elliott, her life partner for over 62 years in 1946. Soon afterwards, they moved from Arkansas to Michigan. There she began a career as a hotel housekeeper and seamstress. She worked for 30 years at the Hotel Harris and the Holiday Inn. Christine also joined Mt. Zion Baptist Church, where she was an active member for as long as she was able. Christine was a tireless member and leader in the Order of the Eastern Star, the Daughters of Isis and the Golden Circle for over 30 years. She held several leadership positions and garnered countless awards. More important to her, though, was the countless lives she touched.

Christine leaves to mourn her passing a devoted and faithful husband, Mr. Jesse Elliott; one daughter, Frances Scott; one sister, Mildred Davis of Sioux City, Iowa; two grandchildren, Robert Duane Scott of Cincinnati, Ohio and Linda D. Scott of Kalamazoo, Michigan; three great-grandchildren; two great-great-grandchildren and a host of other relatives, nieces, nephews and cousins as well as countless associates and friends.

“ Robert,

Reading about this wonderful lady makes it so easy to see why you are the man you are. If you turned out any less your grand mother would have taken you by the hand and showed you they way. She has to have been so very very proud of her grand son Robert.
