“ I would like to extend my greatest sorrows for your one. I know it is hard but living with memories will never let truely be gone.

“ Just here to say I love ya all. Though I cried for the loss of my "baby sister" and your mother, Just remember, she's with Grampa Rogers dancin and singin for Jesus and will be there one day with arms open waiting for each of us to join HIS CHOIR.

When you think of her and it hurts, say a prayer to Jesus, to ease your loss, and to save another family member so that one day down the road we shall all once again be at the most important family reunion.

You were each a most wanted child. Circumstances of the past made all of you stong, but never unloved. Life does that to us. It is what we do with those life lessons, that make us or break us. Each of you have grown into beautiful women and Phillip a handsome young man.

In the Last days, She recieved the Holy Spirit, but she let it change her long before she came to that part of life. Today she is dancing with Angels and family who went before... yet leaves a stong flow of love behind to envelope each of you. Reach out and let it touch your lives even now.

You can email or chat with me anytime, just hollar or call .. I love all of you and your beautiful children##imported-begin##Aunt Carolyn##imported-end##

“ To the Laura Engleman family,

I am so very sorry of your loss. This is Miss Ann and I have truly enjoyed Laura's visits to me when I was the secretary at Brethren School. The stories, the laughs, the tears and craziness with her I will cherish forever.

I am looking forward to hearing from someone for an address so I can keep in contact with Phillip. We all know he was very special to her and he is a great kid. You all need to be very proud of how far he has come with lots of Mom's hard work....that I am aware of.

Take care and always remember the good times.

My e-mail address is bigmissy37@yahoo.com

PLEASE pass this to the family.##imported-begin##Ann
