

Mrs. Nellie R. Hurtt

October 12, 1936 - February 7, 2014

Nellie Rene Hurtt was born to Arthur and Erie Walker on October 12, 1936 in Okolona, Mississippi. Nellie was the eldest of nine children born to this union. Nellie loved the Lord and received Christ at an early age at Tabernacle Church of God and Christ. Nellie also attended the Whole Truth Church of Christ, but later returned to Tabernacle after the death of her brother and pastor Elder Amos Walker. A loving wife and mother, adoring grandmother, caring daughter and sister, loyal friend and faithful servant of God; Nellie loved everyone and was always willing to assist those in need.

Nellie participated in multiple church activities such as the National Church Conferences and the National Women's Conventions. She was very active in the Grace District and her local church. Nellie loved her community bible studies and prayer meetings. Nellie was a social event coordinator, a wedding planner and she displayed a sincere passion for the kitchen services. She will be greatly missed by the many whose lives she touched.

Nellie entered the gates of eternal life on Friday, February 7, 2014. She was greeted there by her husband David Hurtt, youngest and favorite son David Duane Hurtt, grandson Travis Hurtt, parents Arthur and Erie Walker, brothers Tommy and Amos Walker, sister Doris McCoy and nephew Amos Walker Jr.

She leaves to cherish her memory her sons Timothy (Jennifer) Hurtt of Portage, Michigan and Kenneth of Birmingham, Michigan; daughter in-law Teyra Hurtt of West Bloomfield, Michigan; “daughter” Stella Jones; siblings Moses (Ruthie) Walker, Alex Walker, Birda Walker and Stella Dixon all of Kalamazoo, Michigan, Arthur (Cheryl) Walker of Lansing, Michigan; grand children Tim Jr. (Rebecca), Todd, Kyle, Courtney, Eric, Danielle, Tyler and Aubrey; cousins who she spoke with daily Ivera Gaston, Lessie Moore, Nathaniel Buchanan and Erie McPherson; nieces Tari Walker and Vikita Walker-Phillips who were like the daughters she never had; her dearest friend Odessa Nelson, her Church of God and Christ Family and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ Mother Hurtt was a wonderful loving woman of God. She and my mother Diane Williams spoke often and had become more than a tabernacle family but had a mother daughter relationship after all these years she was a great help to everyone she knew as well as my family. It hurt my heart when I received that call that Mother Hurtt was gone but we all know she lived her life that's for sure and I will always treasure the memories and wisdom she has shared with me.

“ I have the best memories of the Hurtt Family, and I over the years, I have run into Nellie "Mrs. Hurtt" at stores and then even a few other places as we ended up finding that we knew many people in common... She was such a dear, christian lady and a beautiful person. For most of the kids in our neighborhood, in the 60s, the Hurtt family were one of the first African american families to integrate into the neighborhood. They were loved by everyone and Tim, Ken, and David were the nicest kids ever... Many years of great memories..... Rest in Peace Mrs. Hurtt, you were a true joy!

“ To the Hurtt , Walker & Smith Family, May God send you a special blessing at this time of sorrow. Nellie will be greatly missed by all who had the pleasure of knowing her. She was a true woman of God who Loved and gave of herself. She was the oldest female first cousin to the Walker's and she let everybody no it and took her place with honor, I Loved her dearly and will miss her. Jeanetta Walker-Hamilton Douglasville GA
