

Mr. Owen M. Campbell Jr.

July 2, 1979 - June 28, 2013

Owen Campbell Jr, affectionately known as "Lil Owen" entered into eternal rest early Friday morning, June 28, 2013 at the age of 33.

Lil Owen was born on July 2, 1979 to the proud parents of Owen Sr. and Brenda Campbell. A lifelong resident of the Allegan, MI area, Lil Owen attended and graduated from Bloomingdale High School. He also earned various credits from Kalamazoo Valley Community College and Davenport College. He was employed at Haworth Inc. for eight years and had perfect attendance.

Lil Owen attended the Christian Life Center and was strong in his faith. He was very committed to reading scriptures from the Bible on a daily basis. This enhanced his strength and gave him a purpose and the desire to strengthen his relationship with God.

Lil Owen was a very mild mannered and easy going young man. Not only was he obedient and respectful to his parents, he respected anyone he encountered and from that alone much respect was returned. One of his many hobbies included interacting with friends and family on Facebook. A simple phone call, which may have gone unnoticed by many, seemed to brighten his day.

Lil Owen was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Curtis and Wardine Lockett.

He leaves to uphold his legacy of love, devotion and respect: his devoted parents, Owen Sr. and Brenda Campbell; grandparents; Willie Campbell and Gloria Saunders; three aunts, Vivian Stubbs, Amy and LeTonya Saunders; three uncles, Kenny (Dortha) Lockett, Paul Chapman and Bernard Campbell; special friends, Marsha and Micah Allen; and a host of extended family and friends. A special recognition is extended to Gloria and Tivia Mosley and Kay Wilkinson who constantly kept in contact with Lil Owen by phone.

“ Lil Owen was truly a joy to around.
He had an ole soul. Basketball season couldn't come fast enough.
When u put basketball and Facebook together watch out. Missed but not forgotten.
