“ Dear, Penny Franklin I will Forever Endure The love You gave to me , there was never a day you was not there for me Or others your passion was to make sure everyone had a smile and you made sure of it. Even if it was dancing, singing, laugh, or even cooking you made sure a smile would appear.... Your personality was so organic That it pulled people to you it was Something real And everyone was treated like a friend or was made family.... Love You and Will see you later I’m so blessed to have Aunt and Cousin Like You❤️

“ To my Favorite Big cousin there are so many good times and joyous memories too many to count. I will miss you stopping by blowing your horn just to say Tisa-poooh I Love You Cuz and Give Uncle Preg a kiss for me. I will miss you asking me what I cooked and can Jaddin come over to keep you company. I will miss you telling me my Journal is full I need another one. All my life you were the life of the party. I am truly going to miss you and I am covering your wonderful children, grandchildren and our family in prayer during this not so easy season In our lives. Rest well with your momma cousin till we meet again Love You!
