The Obituary

Raymond Emmanuel Davis departed this life on January 1, 2024, the son of Joyce Johnson and Raymond Walker. Raymond was loved by everyone. He was a man of many things and he had quite a few talents one being a motorcycle rider he joined the motorcycle club "The Wild Bunch" in the late '90's, where they called him "Grave Digger". He stayed with them until 2016.

Raymond loved to cook that was a hobby of his. He really enjoyed it and when I say that man loved to cook, he could really throw down!

Later on, Raymond gave his life to Christ, where he attended Bible Baptist Church in Kalamazoo, MI. In 2018, he became a deacon and served in his church home for many years.

Raymond was a "Momma's Boy". He loved his mother unconditionally. He also held a special place on his heart for his grandchildren, always looking out for others, especially his family and friends even sheltering them at times. Raymond and his kind ways will truly be missed. We will always love you!

Raymond is preceded in death by his mother, Joyce Johnson, his grandmother, Alberta Davis, his aunt Betty Anderson, cousins Dwight and Chester Anders and nephew Daniel Anderson.

He leaves to cherish his memories, his father, Raymond D. Walker, his children, daughters, Labresha Alguarelle-Davis, Christina Alguarelle-Davis, Cashmere Alguarelle-Davis and Naquavia Potts; sons, Hakeem Stanfill, Zion and Jahad Davis; his grandchildren, Shauntasiah, Jamy, Anthony, Maria, Victor, Matai, Andrea, Ladrea, Honesty, Teliah, Allen, True, Amaya and one great-granddaughter, Kahleah; his brothers, Dwayne Davis, Raymond Walker, Robert (Danielle) Matthews, Charles Wallace, Aquarius Walker, and Christopher Jones; his sisters, Tammy and Marie Davis, Kandi Ross, Trebia Walker, Sareatha and Lisa Love, Sonia Bridgeman. He also leaves behind, his children through marriage, Adrianna, Mary, Clara and Victoria McGowan, Damara and Jacara Jackson, Chaz Rodriguez, Jessica Ruiz, Christina Valadez, Justina, Anthony and Michael Latta, Victor Garcia, Johnny Gonzales and Kane Cruz and special friend, Tony Stepnery and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.
