

Reginald C. Kemp Sr.

August 9, 1953 - October 7, 2013

Reginald Conell Kemp departed this life October 7, 2013 in Kalamazoo MI. He was born August 9, 1953 the son of Llewellyn J and Helen Mae Kemp in Albion MI. He graduated from Albion High School in Albion MI. He accepted Jesus Christ as his Savior at an early age and Loved the Lord dearly.

Reggie was an excellent artist and he loved to draw pictures of his kids and family members. He also loved to sing in harmony with his brothers and sister. He truly loved his one and only beautiful daughter and 5 handsome sons whom all looked just like him. Reggie was very proud of his kids in every aspect of their lives.

Reggie was very humorous, loved to laugh at his brothers (Delbert & Tyrone's) jokes and known for having the most handsome smile.

He leaves to cherish his memories: 1 daughter Lisa Turner, 5 sons Ricky Turner, Reggie Kemp, Michael Kemp, Terry Kemp, Dennis Kemp, 17 grandchildren and 3 great grand children. One sister Bernadine Lewis, 3 brothers Johnny (Katherine) Kemp, Harold (Denise) Kemp, Tyrone Kemp, 7 nieces, 6 nephews, 1 uncle (Calvin Kemp) and a host of cousins and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents and oldest brother Delbert Kemp.

The Kemp family has always been very close and loving to one another, because Daddy told us to, "Always stick together". Each time a loved one goes on to be with the Lord, the experience clearly brings us even closer.

Reggie will always and forever be in our hearts and mind.
