“ *Love each one of you( Larry, Sue, Todd & Kris) and share in your sorry of the loss of Aunt Reva. The first memory that popped into my head was that of when all the property around your childhood home was being bought up, but your mom would not sell. Now there wasn't anything "special" about that house or anything(my view) but she just plain refused and I believe she was maybe one of the last to hold out. But in turn, she "made out like a bandit" by holding out. Way to go Reva!
PS Always liked playing with all you cousins. Love, Pat (and family)*
