“ My dad was a good man he was suffering and now he is in a better place. Me,my mom sister and brothers took good care of him, he would ring his bell and i'd come and do anything for him I miss him alot but i am happy because he isn't suffering any more and if he was still here and not suffering he would probably be working. He loved his family and doing big family events because he knew that mom was going to cook enough to feed the world and he wanted his family around and enjoying life. I love you dad forever and always love your son Ty
