He will be sadly missed. Didn't really know him on a real personal level, but what we knew of him was a genuine, kind, and a very good man. My husband and i are honored to have been one of acquaintances. RIP BOBBY. from Ron & Ginger Schoonbeck.

“ Bob was our neighbor for several years our daughters grew up together, when they moved on Bard Avenue our family's developed a special bond towards one another, and when Laquon came on board he loved coming to the Chatmans house and we helped spoiling him.

When we moved from Bard we still kept our visits with Bob and Pat, family the bible say "Absent from the Body you become Present with the LORD ", he's no longer in discomfort/pain let these words be a comfort to you, we know Bob had a fetish for cars he kept them in mint condition 😊

Family we are upholding you in prayer we Love you we're here for you, I don't know if I will be at the homegoing service, cherish the memories no one can take them from you.

With much LOVE Aunt Debbie and Uncle Kboy ❤️❤️
