

Mr. Roy Chester Felix Sr.

February 5, 1951 - July 28, 2014

Roy Chester Felix Sr. was born February 5, 1954 in Crenshaw, MS to L.C. Felix and Bernice Palmer. He entered into eternity July 28, 2014, in Grand Rapids, MI. Roy grew up in Kalamazoo and attended Lincoln Elementary School and Central High School. He was united in holy matrimony to Dorothy Ruth Watts on April 4, 1975, and together they raised three children: Brina Faye Watts, Dakita Racquel Felix and Roy Spencer Felix. In 1984, they moved to Grand Rapids, Michigan. Roy was employed with Pepsi Corporation and served as a faithful employee for 36 years, before retiring in 2008.

Roy was kind, spirited, mild mannered and always willing to lend a helping hand. Not only was he a husband, father, son, brother, uncle, nephew, cousin and friend but he was a rock to us all. Roy was humble and selfless in his actions--taking care of everyone else before himself. Through any situation he kept a smile on his face and made sure everyone had a smile on theirs. He will be missed, cherished, loved and remembered by his family and friends.

He was preceded in death by his father, L.C. Felix and special uncle J.C. Felix.

He is survived by is devoted, loving wife, Dorothy Ruth Felix; children: Dakita Racquel Felix, Roy Spencer Felix and step-daughter, Brina Faye Watts; mother, Mrs. Bernice Palmer; siblings: Thelma Jean Taylor, Azzile (Jesse)

Mitchell; Debra Lee, Ray (Jamie) Felix, Denise Snell, Ray Buck and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

“ He was always an easygoing, good-hearted person. He would pick me and some of my other friends up to go out places with him and his son Spencer, who I grew up with since childhood. I will miss him and never forget his kind spirit. Rest in peace, Mr. Felix. You will never be forgotten.
