

Ms. Sandra Whitelow

October 9, 1949 - March 15, 2015

Sandra Whitelow departed this life Sunday, March 15, 2015. She was born October 9, 1949 in, the daughter of James and Sylvia Whitelow, in Chicago, IL. Sandra's early education was in Bloomingdale, Michigan. She moved to Kalamazoo Michigan in 1992. Sandra enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren, who she considered her everything, her life and her heart. She loved her nieces and nephews as if they were her own children and she enjoyed spending time with them, teaching them how to cook her homemade pizzas and other homemade recipes. Sandra also enjoyed gardening, and definitely had a "green thumb" because she could bring any plant to life. She was a true diva who loved many people and so many people loved her. She was a caring, giving person with a heart of gold and would feed and shelter the whole neighborhood if she could. She will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved her.

She departed this life to be with her son, Philip Joseph Terrell Junior; her mother, Sylvia Whitelow and her father, James Eugene Whitelow; sister Dorothy Angion; brothers, William Mannie, Robert Mannie and Anthony Mannie.

She leaves to cherish her memory: 3 loving daughters Nina Whitelow Parker Nicole Whitelow Evans Rayshon Whitelow Scott; 2 amazing sons, Pierre Whitelow and Antoine Whitelow; 18 grandchildren, Deontae Jackson, Shanika Compton, Ticiria Hughes, Malcolm Compton; Sabria Bailey; Brittney Bates; Ronald Wimes, Charda Wimes, Sandra Whitelow, Darius Wimes; Olivia Kraus; Simon Whitelow; Joseph Scott, Erin Scott, Sylvia Whitelow, Antoine Eugene James Whitelow Jr; Zryan Roberts, Adam Whitelow and Azariah Terrell Whitelow; 9 great grandchildren; 4 sisters, Beulah Copeland, Erma Jean Rhymes, Gloria Rose and Garthelia Manns; a host of nieces and nephews other relatives and friends.
