

Ms. Sara Queen Hodges

December 2, 1922 - October 23, 2019

****NOTE: Visitation & Funeral Service Times and Location Listed Below****

Sara Queen Hodges departed this life on October 23, 2019 in Kalamazoo, Michigan. Sara was born on December 2, 1922 in Andersonville, GA, the eldest of three daughters born to Sullivan Hodges and Sally B. Hodges. She relocated with her family to Gary, Indiana at the age 2 years old.

She later moved to Kalamazoo, Michigan where she was employed in many capacities until she became a Hospitality Hostess at Bronson Methodist Hospital. She worked there for several years. She enjoyed working with the public and with her coworkers, who became her life-long friends.

Sara was passionate about her relationship with her Lord and Savior. She was a faithful member of Second Baptist Church in Kalamazoo for many years. She served in the music ministry where she enjoyed singing in the choir. You could always find Sara at church most days. She loved the Lord and her church family so very much. She was also a member of the Ecumenical Senior Center in Kalamazoo.

Sara was known to have an outgoing gentle spirit about her. She was someone who loved spending time with friends and family, who she loved very much. She was a joy to be around and she was someone who you would rarely see mad at anyone or about anything. She had a good sense of humor loved to laugh and you would rarely see her without a smile. She was someone who could easily make friends. She also loved her church family very much. She will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved her.

She is preceded in death by her parents; her son, Dennis Hodges; and 2 sisters, Lucy Haithcox and Margaret (Edwards) Haithcox, Sara is survived by her daughter, Judith Broadus; daughter-in-law Roslyn Hodges; and several grandchildren; great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, many friends and her Second Baptist Church family.

“ Cousin Sara was always so full of life. We are grateful for the family history that she shared with us when we visited or when she came to the family reunions in Gary. My mom, Sallye Bramlette Starling, was named after her mom. Cousin Sara was a classy lady who loved the Lord.

“ Ms. Hodges, lived next door to us when we were children. She was always so nice to us. I loved the way she dressed and her make up was always flawless. I pray Yah comfort the family with his love and grace. She will be missed, but the celebration of her long and joyous life will be remembered forever.
