“ Dear Family:

I am saddened by this sudden lost and you have my sincerest condolences. Shamon was my cousin and the only memories I have were from childhood. He always smelled like raisins and always shared them with me. It's good to know that he was loved and now we celebrate him.

Sincerely Yours,

“ As a child, Shamon was a neighborhood big brother to me. We hung out on bikes and with basketball like wet clothes! From that time to the last time I saw him there was one constant; brotherly love. I am blessed to have met Shamon and pray for God’s peace for the family.

“ I worked with Shamone at Woodward Elementary and at Prairie Ridge elementary schools. I thought he was a very nice guy, always happy, always laid back ,in a good mood. He liked to talk about movies, especially in the summer when we all worked together. I think he saw every movie that came out, he could name the actors and the characters they played. I will miss him.
