“ Sharon was a loyal and loving friend of mine for over 45 years. We supported each other through difficult times and shared many fun adventures. Sharon was not only my friend but a part of my family. When I had my youngest daughter I asked Sharon if she would be her godmother and she happily said yes! We traveled together and shared holiday celebrations. We also shared common interests like shopping at antique stores for costume jewelry and Black memorabilia but most of all she was my cheerleader in everything I attempted to do, she encouraged me and celebrated with me in whatever I happened to accomplish. She was the type of friend most people wish they had. God blessed me with Sharon’s friendship and I am forever thankful!
