

Stephen Thomas Lewis

August 19, 1999 - March 24, 2015

Stephen Thomas Lewis, 15, of Otsego MI, died unexpectedly on Tuesday, March 24, 2015 from abrupt head trauma. Although he is no longer with those that knew and loved him, he will never be forgotten.

Stephen was born on August 19th, 1999 in Kalamazoo MI. He was a student at West Campus High School of Otsego, MI and had recently begun the Computer Technology program at the Vocational School. He enjoyed bible study, video games, cooking, Basketball and had earned multiple skill level belts in Tae Kwon Do, which he was a student of for many years. His life-long interest in astronomy had developed into aspirations to be a professional pilot. He had planned on attending aviation school after graduation.

Stephen is survived by his mother, Karlina Lewis and father, Tom Lewis; his half-brother Jacob Lewis; his younger brother and best friend Benjamin Lewis, and grandmother Beatrice Bowman. He is also survived by several aunts, uncles, cousins and good friends. He will be missed by classmates and teachers that all thought dearly of him.

NOTE: MONETARY DONATIONS to help the family with the cost of services can be made through the: Stephen Lewis Memorial FaceBook page where a GoFundMe account has been created.

Please join the family immediately following the memorial for a reception being held at the Blue Dolphin/Papa Petes in downtown Kalamazoo.
