“ Praying for the family. Sylvia was my hair stylist for many years, me and Linda Walker would go to her hair salon every other Saturday to get our hair done. I remember Sylvia styling my hair on my wedding day, thirty years ago. She was such a warm funny, and beautiful woman inside and out.

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to The Jennings family, they were our neighbors for over 50 years on Florence St. I went to school with Norma (Cookie). I remember one of the last times all of my siblings and I were home and we were standing talking with Ms. Sylvia. I will miss seeing her when I come to Kalamazoo. Will keep you all in my heart Barbara, Willie C, Deanne and Felecia (Fefe)

“ Mrs Jennings called me the end of April. Asked me could I help her do something for her. I told her yes! I'd be there that Sunday. I came down sick with a bad cold, so I had to tell her I couldn't make it tell I got better. I'm just now feeling better. Just heard of her passing and wish I could have spent the time with her. She always was fun to be around and we would talk and laugh. Me and Norma were great friends growing up. I would spend the night at there home when I was 11,12, I've known the family since the early sixties. A beautiful family. I send my sincere heartfelt deepest condolences to her children,,siblings grand and great grandchildren. With love! I pray your strength in the Lord. 🌸🌸🌸🌸🌸🌸🙏❤️
