“ To the Family of Taffney Rancifer-Brashers,

Taffney was my 'almost birthday twin' as we called ourselves since childhood. She and I were in Brownies and Girl Scouts together and although we both moved away and started our own families, we kept in touch through Facebook. Sharing with her over the more recent years, we both learned so much about each other as mothers, friends and mature women.

I will always cherish our friendship and honor her with fond memories every November 22nd. To Taris, you are your mother's legacy, as you resemble her beauty. To Christian, a Mother's love for her son is great and never ends. To Taffney's mother, strength and love to you.

“ Jesus, your Father and Husband have met you at The Gate. They tell me that If you love Jesus there should be some signs in your life that you do. You Taffney demonstrated your love and faith in God to me 3 months ago. You spoke not a word concerning yourself. You spoke to me your concerns for your brother and Mother. Your children are demonstrating their love for you as they carry out your final earthly plans. Their strength do so has been instilled in them by you as you loved The Lord your children love The Lord as well. Take your rest Sister Brashers. I know in my heart you fought the good fight and the victory is now yours. Love Allean Rancifer
