"YaYa"

Taigan Breil Bradford, affectionately known as "YaYa" gained her wings on Tuesday, January 11th, 2022 after battling COVID-19 for nearly two months. She was born on October 29, 2004 in Kalamazoo, MI to parents Omeka Bradford of Kalamazoo, MI and Everett Muhammad of Ft. Wayne, IN. Taigan was a 2022 Senior at Kalamazoo Central High School. She is remembered by her love for dancing, cooking and her goldendoodle, Jersey Dior.

Taigan was a vibrant, fun, loving and silly person who had a contagious laugh that uplifted whatever room she was in. Her plans were to attend Kalamazoo Valley Community College to pursue her nursing degree. She had a passion for doing hair and making people feel good about themselves. She loved to swim, drive and travel. Taigan loved her family and was a mama's girl. She and her mom loved to binge watch show series, movies and shipping. She would participate and be competitive during family game nights and no matter the game, you could count on YaYa to bring her best foot forward. For any occasion, she had the best costumes that were so creative. Taigan was always laughing and full of life and was the queen of rocking out on TikTok videos.

Taigan had a bond with all of her cousins that was unmatched and admirable. She and her cousins were inseparable and could count on each other no matter what. She was loved by all that knew her and will leave a lasting imprint in their hearts.

Taigan was preceded in death by both her maternal and paternal great grandparents, Hellon Smith, James Arthur Smith, Rosevelt Bradford, Evelyn Bradford, Willie Virginia Thomas, Walter Thomas, Josephine Jackson and Charles Jackson.
