THE SCROLL OF LIFE

Terry Martin Sr. was born on December 4 , 1943, in Shelby, Mississippi, to the union of Willie B. Greyer Martin and Willie Martin. He moved to Kalamazoo in 1968 at the age of 25 with his father Willie Martin and landed his first job at Zayre and was able to purchase his first home on 822 Woodbury in 1972 where he still resided until his passing.

He loved to fish, work on cars and spend time with his son and grandchildren and hang out on the sun porch playing cards, dominos and listening to music with friends. Listening to his gospel music he was a faithful member of Galilee Baptist Church for over 20 years. But besides that everybody knows he just loves to ride. He was known as “The Grandfather of Woodbury”.

Terry was stricken through the pandemic at the age of 12 with Polo but he never let that stop him from living his life. Terry worked a professional career for H&R Block and AARP as a Tax Specialist.

He departed this earth on May 26, 2021. He was preceded in death by Father Willie Martin; Mother Willie B. Greyer Martin, Stepmother Mary Martin; Brother, Oscar Marton.

He leaves to cherish in his memory two Sisters, Emma Skinner of Shelby, Mississippi and Jamie Martin of Battle Creek, Michigan; one son Terry (Kimberly Hooper) Martin Jr., two grandchildren, Terry (Breonna) Martin III, Courtney (DeAllen) Martin, six Great Grandchildren; Aniyah, Jada, Angel, Mya, Terry IV & Amari; One special grandson Dearius Hooper; special friends Raynard Fry, Marquise Brown, and Antonio McMillon. Also a host of family friends and loved ones.
