Dearest Gloria Burton Watts:

I am so sorry to learn of your lifelong husband and best friend Thomas's passing. I embrace the memory of seeing you both at my Cousin LeSean wedding. Celebrating with your bestie Dorothy and all of us as community neighbors in Muskegon. Years pass but memories of life's fellowship and friendship last forever. I pray 🙏 for your strength and endurance during this period of time. Take comfort in knowing that he is in the Kingdom and protected from the ills and pain of life here on earth. Blessings to you and favor for your gift of love and caring; surrendering to the obedience of the Lord's Will.

May the Creator Cover All of Us, during this time of transition.

Thank you for Celebrating the presence and life of Thomas J. Watts, affectionately referred to, by me as , "Uncle Dad". (After the death of my own father, he was the presence that I had).

I know that he was Concentrated ,Sincere and Steadfast in his celebration of all of you. Thank you for the outpouring of love and condolences, for our family and Aunt Jean.

Uncle Thomas this is rough man, but you taught me how to be unwavering in both faith and fortitude, to accomplish that which we need to do. The Ancestors/ Angels have gained a profound Vessel of Greatness in you! Gratitude for your Protection, Provision and Demonstration of Perfect Peace! I Love You Beyond this Life... KuLena R. Burton

My grandfather was one of the people in my life who no matter what I was going through, I could count on him. He and Gloria were Always there for me with an unwavering love and support. He will be greatly missed. I thank God that I was blessed to have my grandfather in my life. He taught me so much. At his urging I learned a trade and the value of working to achieve what I didn't no I could. Thanks grandpa. I love deeply and will miss your. But I will draw on your lessons for the rest of my life. I hope I'm half as good at passing them along as you were giving them to me. I love you.
