“ I remember going over to Mrs. Whittmores house when I was a teen with my bestfriend Luedora all of the time. Mrs Whittmore was a very warm compassionate woman of God and very soft spoken. Family on behalf of the Baidy Family we send you our heart felt sympathy.

“ To my Nephew and the Whittmore Family , May God continue to bless and keep you in His arms. May you join together and continue what your Mother and Grandmother would want you all to do, continue the special gathering and the love and my her memories be the top subject at the dinner table. Remember God is with you even until the end.

Love, Aunt Ruby

“ You will be missed dearly. The many times you passed the yard and said hi. The comments on the garden each year. The support you gave me during my roughest times. You have been a blessing to us all.

“ Our deepest sympathy and prayers to the Whitmore family, we love and will miss Aunt Ginnie. This quiet, loving, caring and extraordinary woman was the neighborhood mother that we always respected and became our Aunt Ginnie. Thank you for the years of selling candy and huckabugs (frozen Kool-Aid) cups to the neighborhood kids; we visited your home often for these treats. You will truly be missed. The Poplar family.
