

Mr. Willie Nathaniel Brown

April 13, 1948 - September 15, 2011

Willie Nathaniel Brown, son of Florrie Mae Brown entered into a deep sleep on Thursday, September 15, 2011 at Rose Arbor Hospice Care of Kalamazoo, MI of cancer. Willie (also known as Nate or "Ole Man") will forever linger in the hearts and minds of those who knew him. Willie was an exceptional human being. He was amazing. He loved life. He loved people. He especially loved Jehovah's beautiful creation and we all know what he was especially fond of! He will be missed for the love he showed toward people and especially children. He loved children and they loved him. He was very, very generous. He always had a popsicle for the kids in the neighborhood. He would give the shirt off his back to anyone who needed it. He touched people in a way that made it special and only he and the person he touched understood. At the end he could only wink--and winking is what he did. He was caring and concerned. His cooking was wonderful. He loved fishing and fried chicken. Willie Nathaniel Brown loved Jehovah God. He took time out of his life to sit down and learn about the True God-Jehovah. He knew that if he had to leave this life now, he had the hope of seeing the ones he so deeply cared about in the near future. He knew he would only be sleeping and he would see you again as promised in the bible. He knew he would just be resting! If he could speak he would say, "I will see you soon!". Those he leaves to cherish the time they spent with him include the following: His beautiful children, Lucille Sims-Small (Leroy) of Barnwell, South Carolina, Barbara Jean Brown of Williston, South Carolina, Angie Brown of Barnwell, South Carolina, Anedrilla

Brown of Norfolk, Virginia and Mark Smith of Kalamazoo, Michigan; sisters: Mrs. Mae Ruth Williams and Mrs. Carrie E. Carter of Blackville, South Carolina; brothers: Mr. Robert L. Brown of Charlotte, North Carolina and Mr. Walter L. Brown of Kalamazoo, MI; eight grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.
